JURY DEMAND

5. Plaintiff respectfully demands a trial by jury of all issues in this matter pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 38 (b).

PARTIES

6. Plaintiff MARKENSON ABELLARD is a thirty year old African American legally residing in Brooklyn, New York.

7. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was and is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.

8. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK maintains the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as "NYPD"), a duly authorized public authority and/or police department, authorized to perform all functions of a police department as per the applicable sections of the aforementioned municipal corporation, CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. That at all times hereinafter mentioned, the individually named defendants ALI JAVED, and JOHN and JANE DOE 1 through 10, were duly sworn police officers of said department and were acting under the supervision of said department and according to their official duties.

10. That at all times hereinafter mentioned the defendants, either personally or through their employees, were acting under color of state law and/or in compliance with the official rules, regulations, laws, statutes, customs, usages and/or practices of the State of New York and/or the City of New York.

11. Each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein were done by said defendants while acting within the scope of their employment by defendant CITY OF NEW YORK.

FACTS

12. On July 3, 2009, at approximately 10:00 p.m., plaintiff MARKENSON ABELLARD was lawfully operating a motor vehicle in the vicinity of Bedford Avenue between Clarkson Avenue and Lenox Road, Brooklyn, New York.

13. The defendant police officers illegally stopped plaintiff's vehicle, approached plaintiff, and requested plaintiff's license and registration.

14. Plaintiff handed the defendant officers his license and registration, and the defendants immediately ordered plaintiff to exit his vehicle.

15. Plaintiff exited his vehicle and thereafter the defendants placed over tight handcuffs on plaintiff's wrists and refused to loosen the handcuffs despite plaintiff's repeated requests.

16. Thereafter, the defendants illegally searched plaintiff's vehicle and recovered a knife. Plaintiff explained to the defendants that the knife was a knife he used in the course of his employment as a mechanic and that he purchased the knife through the Snap-on brand catalogue.

17. The defendants transported plaintiff to an NYPD precinct where plaintiff was imprisoned and subjected to a humiliating and unlawful strip search. The defendants compelled plaintiff to remove all of his clothing, squat and cough, and spread his buttocks, all in view of other prisoners.

18. Thereafter, the defendants imprisoned plaintiff until they released plaintiff with a Desk Appearance Ticket compelling plaintiff to appear in Kings County Criminal Court on August 6, 2009.

19. On August 6, 2009, plaintiff appeared in Kings County Criminal Court and was arraigned on false charges filed against claimant on Docket No. 2009KN062410 based on the false statements of defendant JAVED. Defendant JAVED falsely alleged that the defendant was in illegal possession of a gravity knife, which unlike the knife plaintiff possessed, is a per se weapon under the New York Penal Law. The defendants initiated said prosecution with malice, and otherwise caused said prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff for the purpose of obtaining a collateral objective outside the legitimate ends of the legal process, to wit: to cover up the above mentioned abuse of authority.

20. The malicious prosecution compelled plaintiff to return to Court on numerous dates until February 17, 2010, when the criminal docket was dismissed and sealed in Kings County Criminal Court.

21. All of the above occurred while other NYPD officers failed to intervene in the illegal conduct described herein.

22. All of the above occurred as a direct result of the unconstitutional policies, customs or practices of the City of New York, including, without limitation, the inadequate screening, hiring, retaining, training, promoting, compensating, and supervising its employees, and due to discrimination against plaintiff due to his race and/or nationality.

23. The aforesaid event is not an isolated incident. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is aware (from lawsuits, notices of claims, and complaints filed with the NYPD's Internal Affairs Bureau, and the CITY OF NEW YORK's Civilian Complaint Review Board) that many NYPD officers are insufficiently trained on when to stop, detain, arrest and search individuals, on the identification of gravity knives, and the lawful parameters of conducting strip searches.

24. Defendant CITY OF NEW YORK is further aware that such improper training has often resulted in a deprivation of civil rights. Despite such notice, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to take corrective action. This failure caused the officers in the present case to violate the plaintiff's civil rights.

25. Moreover, upon information and belief, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK was aware, prior to the incident, that the individual defendants lacked the objectivity, temperament, maturity, discretion, and disposition to be employed as police officers. Despite such notice, defendant CITY of NEW YORK has retained these officers, and failed to adequately train and supervise them.

26. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff MARKENSON ABELLARD sustained, inter alia, physical injuries, emotional distress, embarrassment, humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
